

SUMMER JOBS ALASKA - FOOD PROCESSING FACILITY

COMPANY SUMMARY

Wild Alaska Salmon & Seafood Co. is a small privately owned commercial salmon fishing and processing operation located in the remote region of Bristol Bay, Alaska. We catch, process and directly sell our own salmon, shipping fresh fish as well as blast freeze processing throughout the season. We are currently looking for 6-12 hardworking people to work in rotating shifts throughout the summer as full-time staff at our salmon processing facility in remote Alaska to be part of our 2016 summer season.

WORK ENVIRONMENT

This is a shore based food processing facility for salmon. Our facility is a fast paced assembly line with multiple daily tasks. Cool, wet working conditions. The workload is regulated by the salmon run from approximately June 15th – August 5th. The facility operates 24/7 throughout the season and shifts are based on 12 hour days, during the “peak” up to 16-18 hours daily. It is not uncommon during “peak” season to work 100 hours p/week. Everyone will be working or be on call/ready to work at any time for the entire duration they are employed.

AVAILABLE POSTIONS

- PROCESSORS
Work as a team member on our assembly line in our food processing facility. Cut, fillet, load and unload fish into freezers and package fish. Prepare orders to be shipped out. Any and all other odd tasks as needed including plant sanitation, housekeeping, etc. No experience required. Pay is negotiable based on skills and/or experience.
- EXPERIENCED DRIVERS
Operate fork lifts, drive pick-up trucks with trailers and/or large military trucks (deuce). Must be able to drive manual transmission. Must authorize to driving history report and have clean record. Pay is negotiable based on experience.
- SKILLED MECHANICS
General knowledge and ability with vehicles, forklifts, skid loaders, refrigeration and food processing equipment to conduct maintenance and repairs as needed. Common sense required. Welding skills a plus. Pay is negotiable based on experience.

LOCATION

We are located in remote Alaska and not connected to the state highway system. The connecting towns of King Salmon and Naknek are located approx. 300 miles southwest of Anchorage on a 16 mile stretch of highway (that is the only paved road). Our bunkhouses and processing facility are located in the middle of both of these towns, so not in walking distance of anything. Everything has to be flown in or come in by barge which makes it very expensive. Therefore, it is advised based on our location for each individual to bring any necessities they require (medicine, cigarettes, gum, etc.)

WEATHER

The weather can vary from 40 degrees and rainy to 80 degrees and sunny in the same day. Dress in layers, durable clothing only. Also, there are a lot of mosquitos if it is warm and sunny.
